AN INTRODUCTION TO HAYDN'S Mass in Time of War

Throughout the ages, wealthy patrons and congregations frequently marked important occasions in their history by commissioning works of art, whether it be a piece of sculpture, an altar painting, a stained glass window for their church, or a musical setting of the liturgical service for chorus, soloists and orchestra by a great composer which could be sung on special occasions. The body of liturgical masses, of which Haydn's Mass in Time of War is one, falls into this category. From a practical point of view, only the textual portions of the service, which are generally constant week by week, were included in these settings. These sections, the Ordinary of the Mass, are: the Kyrie [plea to the Lord for mercy] and Gloria [Glory to God], the Creed [statement of faith], and the Eucharist [Thanksgiving...referring to Holy Communion]: the Sanctus [Holy, Holy, Holy] and Agnus Dei [Lamb of God]. The Lessons and other portions of the service, which change weekly, were never included which made these settings more versatile.

The texts of the Ordinary are drawn from the Bible and other religious sources. The Kyrie, Gloria (the song the Angels sang announcing Christ's birth that first Christmas Eve) and Sanctus (circa 120 A.D.) date from the earliest centuries of the Christian Era; the Creed, and Agnus Dei were in place within the Christian service by 800AD. These sections are spaced throughout the service as the liturgical journey to Holy Communion progresses and were originally sung to Gregorian Chant. The movements or sections of the mass were never composed to be sung together consecutively as a unit as one hears in modern performances in concert halls.

Mass in Time of War by Joseph Haydn (1732-1809) will be presented today in the format within the service for which it was intended—liturgical worship. One of Haydn's later masses, Mass in Time of War (Missa in Tempore Belli/Pauken Messe) was likely presented for the first time on St. Stephen's Day, December 26, 1796 at the Piarist Church, Josefstadt in Vienna. Receiving its title from the prominent use of trumpet fanfares and timpani (kettledrums) rolls, Mass in Time of War reminded the Austrians of Napoleon and his troops' presence on their borders. From these circumstances one would expect a work of angst and trepidation for the impending conflict—that is not the case. Mass in Time of War is one of great optimism and joy. Haydn is quoted as saying: "When I think about my God, my heart leaps with joy and then my music leaps with it." Surely this is evident here, as is the composer's profound faith in God. The music truly speaks the message of salvation from the text. The final Agnus Dei and Dona Nobis with the magnificent trumpet flourishes and timpani rolls concludes the work as a triumphant prayer for peace, a sentiment which continues to have meaning nowadays.

PRAYER OF THE DAY

Let us pray. Almighty God, your Son Jesus Christ is the way, the truth, and the life. Give us grace to love one another, to follow in the way of his commandments, and to share his risen life with all the world, for he lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever. Amen.

FIRST READING Acts 7:55-60

Stephen was one of the seven men chosen by the apostles to serve tables so that the apostles could be free to serve the word (Acts 6:1-6). Stephen does more than distribute food, however. For his preaching of God's word, he becomes the first martyr of the faith.

Filled with the Holy Spirit, [Stephen] gazed into heaven and saw the glory of God and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. "Look," he said, "I see the heavens opened and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!" But they covered their ears, and with a loud shout all rushed together against him. Then they dragged him out of the city and began to stone him, and the witnesses laid their coats at the feet of a young man named Saul. While they were stoning Stephen, he prayed, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." Then he knelt down and cried out in a loud voice, "Lord, do not hold this sin against them." When he had said this, he died. The Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

SECOND READING 1 Peter 2:2-10

Christ is the cornerstone of God's saving work and the foundation of our lives. We are God's chosen, holy people who continuously celebrate and declare the mercy of God we experience through Jesus Christ.

Like newborn infants, long for the pure, spiritual milk, so that by it you may grow into salvation if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is good. Come to him, a living stone, though rejected by mortals yet chosen and precious in God's sight, and like living stones let yourselves be built into a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. For it stands in scripture: "See, I am laying in Zion a stone, a cornerstone chosen and precious, and whoever believes in him will not be put to shame." This honor, then, is for you who believe, but for those who do not believe, "The stone that the builders rejected has become the very head of the corner," and "A stone that makes them stumble and a rock that makes them fall." They stumble because they disobey the word, as they were destined to do. But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God's own people, in order that you may proclaim the excellence of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light. Once you were not a people, but now you are God's people; once you had not received mercy, but now you have received mercy. The Word of Life. Thanks be to God.

During the Gospel Acclamation our children are invited to join Vicar Joel in the Chapel for a special children's message. They will return during the sharing of the peace.

GOSPEL ACCLAMATION (please stand as you are able)

Cantors: Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Repeat Antiphon.

GOSPEL John 14:1-14

The Gospel according to John, the 14th chapter. Glory to you, O Lord.

[Jesus said to the disciples:] “Do not let your hearts be troubled. Believe in God; believe also in me. In my Father’s house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you? And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and will take you to myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. And you know the way to the place where I am going.” Thomas said to him, “Lord, we do not know where you are going. How can we know the way?” Jesus said to him, “I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. If you know me, you will know my Father also. From now on you do know him and have seen him.” Philip said to him, “Lord, show us the Father, and we will be satisfied.” Jesus said to him, “Have I been with you all this time, Philip, and you still do not know me? Whoever has seen me has seen the Father. How can you say, ‘Show us the Father’? Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words that I say to you I do not speak on my own, but the Father who dwells in me does his works. Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me, but if you do not, then believe because of the works themselves. Very truly, I tell you, the one who believes in me will also do the works that I do and, in fact, will do greater works than these, because I am going to the Father. I will do whatever you ask in my name, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If in my name you ask me for anything, I will do it.” The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, O Christ.

CREDO

Credo in unum Deum – Chorus

Credo in unum Deum, Patrem omnipotentem, factorem coeli et terrae, visibilium omnium et invisibilium.

Et in unum Dominum Jesum Christum, Filiium Dei unigenitum, et ex Patre natum ante omnia saecula, Deum de Deum,

*Lumen de lumine, Deum verum de Deo vero, genitum non factum,
consubstantialem Patri;
Per quem omnia facta sunt, qui propter nos homines et propter
nostram salutem descendit de coelis,*

I believe in one God,
the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only begotten Son of God, begotten of his Father before all worlds, God
of God,

Light of light, very God of very God,
Begotten, not made, being of one substance with the Father;
By whom all things were made, who
for all peoples and for our salvation
came down from heaven,

Et incarnatus

*Et incarnatus est de Spiritu Sancto
ex Maria virgine, et homo factus est,
Crucifixus etiam pro nobis sub Pontio
Pilato, passus et sepultus est,*

And was incarnate by the Holy Spirit of the virgin Mary, and made man, was crucified also for us under Pontius Pilate, suffered and was buried,

Et resurrexit

Et resurrexit tertia die secundum scripturas, et ascendit in coelum, sedet ad dexteram Dei Patris.

*Et iterum venturus est cum gloria iudicare vivos et mortuos: cujus
regni non erit finis.*

*Et in Spiritum Sanctum, dominum et vivificantem, qui ex Patre Filioque procedit, qui cum Patre et Filio
simul adoratur et conglorificatur, qui locutus est per prophetas.*

*Et unam sanctam catholicam et apostolicam ecclesiam.
Confiteor unum baptismum in remissionem peccatorum, et expecto
resurrectionem mortuorum,*

Et vitam venturi saeculi. Amen.

And the third day he rose again
according to the Scriptures, and ascended into heaven, and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father.

And he shall come again with glory
to judge both the quick and the dead:
whose kingdom shall have no end.

And I believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the Giver of Life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son together is worshiped and glorified, who hath spoken through the prophets.

And I believe in one holy catholic and apostolic church.

I acknowledge one baptism for the remission of sins, and I look for the resurrection of the dead,

Et vitam

And the life of the world to come.
Amen.

Lift up your hearts. We lift them to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord, our God.

It is right to give our thanks and praise.

PROPER PREFACE

It is indeed right, our duty and our joy, that we should at all times and in all places give thanks and praise to you, almighty and merciful God, for the glorious resurrection of our Savior Jesus Christ, the true Paschal Lamb who gave himself to take away our sin; who in dying has destroyed death, and in rising has brought us to eternal life. And so, with Mary Magdalene and Peter and all the witnesses of the resurrection, with earth and sea and all their creatures, and with angels and archangels, cherubim and seraphim, we praise your name and join their unending hymn:

SANCTUS

For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen. (please be seated)
